

2023 Big Apple Award Nominations Are Now Open!

Who: Students, families, administrators, and community members can all nominate any public school DOE teacher for the Big Apple Award. You are encouraged to nominate a teacher!

What: The Big Apple Awards recognize and celebrate New York City teachers who make positive differences for all the students they teach. Has a teacher changed your student's life for the better? We want to hear from you!

When: The nomination window is open until February 28, 2023. After nominations are in, the selection process will begin!

Where/How: You can nominate a teacher by:

- Submit the teacher's name and school to the DOE All Stars website:
 - <https://doeallstars.schools.nyc/>
 - Note: sign in as a Guest - you do not need a DOE login to nominate a teacher through the portal
- Email bigappleteachers@schools.nyc.gov with the teacher's name and school information
- Tell your school office or your Family Engagement Coordinator at your Superintendent's office
