November Parent Engagement

November 2025

Dear P596X Families,

Throughout the months of November and December, your child is reading, The Kindness Book, by Todd Parr. This book explores the meaning of kindness through bright, colorful illustrations and simple text. The book defines kindness as thinking about others' feelings, helping them feel good, and includes a variety of examples like listening, saying sorry, helping things grow, and being kind to oneself.

We would like to invite you to be part of this read aloud followed by an activity in your child's classroom. We hope you will join us for the fun and interactive activity.
